

ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Chemveda is committed to excellence in environment, health and safety (EHS) and considers environmental protection, prevention of occupational illness, and work injuries, as pillars of responsibility.

Environment protection, injury, and ill health prevention minimise pollution, eliminate occupational health and safety hazards by adopting Sound and Good Manufacturing Practices.

Inculcate principles of safety, health, and environmental care and processes to all people on a continuous basis for enhancing EHS culture

Continuous improvement of environment, health and safety performance by setting up and meeting EHS objectives

Cost-effective technological interventions to mitigate Human/Property risk, reduce environmental impact by Elimination, Substitution, Reduction, Recycling, Reuse, and Recovery at the source.

People-centric EHS policy by effective participation and consultation.

Safe and Healthy work environment with exemplary Housekeeping and Safe work practices

Comply with Legal and obligatory requirements towards the environment, health and safety