

CHEMVEDA LIFE SCIENCES INDIA PVT. LTD.

ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Chemveda is committed to continually improve excellence in environment, health and safety (EHS) and considers environmental protection, prevention of occupational illness, and work injuries, as pillars of responsibility in Research & Development, Contract and Manufacturing services.

- Environment protection, injury, and ill health prevention minimize pollution and eliminate occupational health and safety hazards by adopting Good Laboratory and Manufacturing Practices.
- Inculcate principles of safety, health, and environmental care and processes to all people on a continuous basis for enhancing the EHS culture.
- Continuous improvement of environment, health and safety performance by setting up and meeting EHS objectives.
- Cost-effective technological interventions to mitigate Human/Property risk, and reduce environmental impact by Elimination, Substitution, Reduction, Recycling, Reuse, and Recovery at the source.
- People-centric EHS policy by effective participation and consultation.
- Safe and Healthy work environment with exemplary Housekeeping and Safe work practices.
- Comply with Legal, Regulatory, customer and obligatory requirements towards the environment, health and safety.

DocuSigned by:
BheemaParaselli
0DE094428136426...

Bheema Rao Paraselli
President & CEO